INDUSTRIAL IDEALS REALIZED.

Half a Million Dollars Insurance for Only $400.

Rochester, N. Y.—In the completion of a model plant for the manufacturers have "built better than they knew." For not only has it eclipsed any similar institution of its kind, but, according to authorities, it represents the finest example of modern factory construction in existence today.

Glass and concrete form the building's exterior. The sides are all windows, 1011 in number, containing 44,286 square feet of glass. Sunshine invades the interior's most remote corners and the light is constantly that of out-of-doors.

A separate power plant (capacity 800 H. P.) generates heat and electricity, and operates a wonderful system of vacuum cleaning. Dust and waste is absorbed and instantly removed from the building by this system, preserving absolute and constant cleanliness throughout.

Numerous fountains, of perfected type, supply filtered drinking water, chilled by a 1½ ton ice machine. And by an elaborate system of ventilation the air in every room is changed every eight minutes. Never have the rules of sanitation and hygiene been more strictly observed than in this splendid institution.

Of this 178,000 square feet of floor space, 16,000 square feet are devoted exclusively to employees' interests. Elaborate dining, smoking, and lounging rooms are provided, also a thoroughly equipped hospital room with medical attendance.

Of noteworthy interest also is the low rate of insurance paid by L. Adler Bros. & Company on their new home. On half a million dollars worth of insurance, they pay an annual premium of $400.00—the lowest rate ever given in America to a manufacturing institution.

To this is due the fact that the methods of construction used in the Adler-Rochester Plant, almost entirely obviate the possibilities of damage by fire.
